Induction

This project is to full fill the aim of future plan of Mahachulalongkornrajavidyalaya University called MCU plan 12. As we understand, MCU has been established for many decades mainly for the providing higher education to the novices, monks and lay person in Thailand.

MCU himself is not only providing higher education to the local Buddhist monks but also for the Buddhist monks from all over the word. Recently, many foreign students are studying at MCU especially from the neighboring countries. Therefore, MCU has given responsibilities to International Relation Division to help and provide them necessary documents for the extension their visa, give advice for their studies, an orientation, organize seminar on International Buddhist Cultures exhibition. As we know that foreign students at MCU has formed 17 clubs in order to maintain student identity, join hand with administers and keep close to the students.

This year is a very special year of MCU to celebrate 133rd anniversary. And also many events have taken places such as International seminar on exhibition to remark 133rd anniversary celebration of MCU on 12th-13th September, 2563/2020.

For the exhibition, the 13 foreign student clubs exhibition is one of the part to celebrate 133rd anniversary of MCU with the different historical background of Buddhism, tradition and culture, which much more attractive to observers from local and overseas, on the ground floor, auditorium hall, MCU, Ayutthaya.

This MCU has given an opportunity to foreign student clubs in order to explore their exhibition. It also makes more cooperation with MCU more and more. Foreign student clubs wish to thank and join hand with MCU for the future activities.

Objective of the Project

The main objects of this project are: 1) to full fill the version of MCU, 2) to cooperate and mutual understand between students and administers of MCU, 3) to develop skill of student, 4) to recognize the different culture and tradition among the Buddhist communities, 5) to learn how Buddhism influence on their people.
